ALL SAINTS SUNDAY – NOVEMBER 1ST

This Sunday is All Saints Sunday. This is a special time to remember those who have died in the past year. This Sunday, like every Sunday, we will gather at 8:30 and 10:50 to celebrate the grace and love of God. As part of our service of worship we will have Holy Communion and light candles while naming the names of those who now celebrate around the very throne of grace. In addition to naming our church members, there will also be a time for each of us to name the names of others who have been important to us individually. While the list below only includes church members the sanctuary will be full of memories and the names of others as we gather on Sunday. We gather to celebrate the life and witness of all who have impacted us. We gather to give thanks for all God's gifts.

These are the names of our local saints that will be read on Sunday:

Cornelia Borders	Nell Westmoreland	Charles Nelson
Eloise Hunter	Sadie Derrick	Gene Henderson
Douglas Hudson	Doris Padgett	Edith Yentzer
Jack Rogers, Sr.	Virginia Roberts	John Nixon, Sr.
Christine Myrick	Ann Odum	Harry Garrett
Eva Liggin	John Goldston	Rudy Maurizi
Dolly Yeager	James Lastinger, Sr.
Antonio Sanso	Mildred Batchelor

I hope that you will make a special effort to attend this Sunday as we celebrate the lives of our local saints. To me this is one of the most sacred days in the life of a local church. I know that for many it is a tender time, but it is also a time to remember and acknowledge God's love, mercy and grace. We gather to remember and give thanks.

See you Sunday!

Jimmy
